

From the Office of Santa Claus

Dear Billy,

Mrs. Claus is in the kitchen baking cookies, the reindeer are outside playing, and the elves are busy in the workshop. I'm supposed to be checking my list, twice you know! I came across your name on the good list and thought I would write you a letter.

I know you enjoyed the game you received last year and just this morning I saw the elves loading some gifts onto the sleigh; and your name was on one! I also saw Brian's name on a gift, you might mention it to him.

Before I sign off, I want you to know how proud I am of you for improving your grades; I know its hard work.

I have time to write a few more letters before dinner.

Merry Christmas Billy!

Love, Santa
